

Role: Art Manager

Location: Stirling, Scotland

Term: Full-time

About Rivet Games

Rivet Games was setup by veterans of Dovetail Games in 2019, and currently has a staff of 18 that produce top quality content for a variety of video games. Our add-on packs for the Train Simulator games released include some of the highest rated content ever produced for Train Simulator.

Role overview

The role of Art Manager is to lead and motivate a team of talented artists in delivering high quality game simulation content. As Art Manager you will be responsible for managing art production, reviewing all art content production. You will work with management to agree suitable guidelines and timescales for projects, and anticipate and take action on any issues that may impact our ability to hit them.

Responsibilities

- Establish technical and aesthetic art guidelines.
- Ensure that all art assets created conform to guidelines.
- Appoint and oversee any outsourced work.
- Motivate and support the development of the art team
- Create and track project schedules.
- Constantly evaluate new tools, processes and workflows to improve productivity

What we are looking for

- Good technical skills
- Pro-active problem solver
- Experience of managing other artists
- Proficient with 3DS Max, Blender, Unreal and other standard industry tools
- Good analytical, communication, planning and organisational skills.
- Vehicle / technical modelling experience an advantage.

Rivet Games benefits

- 26 days holiday + 8 days statutory holiday
- Pension scheme
- Eye-care vouchers
- Free parking
- Regular social and sporting activities

We are committed to promoting equal opportunities and diversity, and all applicants will be considered on their merit, qualifications, competence and talent regardless of any protected characteristics. However, we are currently unable to employ anyone who does not have the legal right to live and work in the UK.